

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

In re:

CLOSING OF CLERK'S OFFICE
OF THE UNITED STATES
BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN,
SOUTHERN AND NORTHERN DIVISIONS.

Administrative Order No. 2007-4

Monday, December 31, 2007, is New Year's Eve. The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts has closed the Administrative office for regular business that day. The Supreme Court will also be closed.

Upon consultation with the other bankruptcy judges in this district, it has been determined that it is appropriate to enter this Administrative Order which closes the bankruptcy court on December 31, 2007 at noon and extends the time to timely file a pleading or paper until the next business day, as contemplated by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Clerk's Office for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Michigan, Southern and Northern Divisions, shall be officially closed on Monday, December 31, 2007 at noon. Court hearings previously scheduled shall be held or adjourned at the discretion of the judge.
2. In the event that Monday, December 31, 2007 is the last day of a designated period to file a pleading or other paper, the time to timely file such pleading or paper is hereby extended to Wednesday, January 2, 2008, the next business day that the court is officially open, in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006.

Dated: December 26, 2007

Honorable James D. Gregg, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
