

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

In re:

CLOSING OF CLERK'S OFFICE
OF THE UNITED STATES
BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN,
SOUTHERN AND NORTHERN DIVISIONS.

Administrative Order No. 2009-3

The court takes judicial notice that the Administrative Office of the United States Courts and many individual courts throughout the country will be closed on Friday, November 27, 2009 and Thursday, December 24, 2009.

Upon consultation with the other bankruptcy judges in this district, it has been determined that it is appropriate for this court to enter this Administrative Order to close this court on the same days, November 27, 2009 and December 24, 2009, and to extend the time to timely file a paper until the next business day, as contemplated by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Clerk's Office for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Michigan, Southern and Northern Divisions, shall be officially closed on Friday, November 27, 2009 and Thursday, December 24, 2009. Court hearings previously scheduled shall be held or adjourned at the discretion of the judge.
2. In the event that Friday, November 27, 2009, and Friday, December 24, 2009, are the last days of a designated period to file a pleading or other paper, the time to timely file such pleading or paper is hereby extended to Monday, November 30, 2009 and Monday, December 28, 2009, respectively, the next business days that the court is officially open, in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006.

Dated: OCT 29 2009

Honorable James D. Gregg, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
